

Jim Schink

Investment Committee Member

James H. Schink is Of Counsel in the Litigation Department of Kirkland & Ellis and serves as a member of our Investment Committee.

Jim has acted as lead counsel in more than 50 U.S. state and federal trials; U.S., state, and federal administrative proceedings; and international arbitrations involving contract, fraud, product liability, environmental, antitrust, toxic tort, warranty, water resource allocation, and securities fraud disputes. He has argued before the American Arbitration Association, the ICC International Court of Arbitration, the London Court of International Arbitration, and the CPR, as well as in several ad hoc proceedings.